Mountain Harbour Ladies Eclectic Tournament round one

MHLGA Results for June 10th Round 1 of the 3rd Annual MHLGA Eclectic Tournament. Chip-Ins today go to: Sidney Moser single handedly won the whole $8 chip-in pot today with her chip-in on hole #12. Way to go Sidney!

Birdies: Diana Azor birdied TWO holes today on #11 and #15. We think it's most likely she can cross those 2 holes off her list for Round 2 of the Eclectic next week. Her group thought her ball was going in the hole at #15 but it just stopped short. She will have to replay that again to try for a Hole In One on Round 2.

Honorable Mention: Gloria White had the overall lowest net score today with a 67! We thought she turned into the Eveready Bunny as she kept hopping with excitement on almost every hole. The screams could be heard by other groups who assumed she was making lots of birdies and eagles! Nice going Gloria, your hard work is paying off. You could stay home next week, but we hope you'll join us just the same! Looking forward to seeing you all for the final Round 2 of the Eclectic Tournament on June 17th. I'm sure there are still lots of good scores waiting to be made that day! TJun16.G2/SH

Chatuge Shores Ladies Golfers play Stableford event

"The weather cooperated, the sun came out and at the end we even had a gentle breeze!" stated Vicky Healy, President.

The Chatuge Shores Ladies Golf Association (CSLGA) played a Stableford event on Tuesday, June 8. First developed by Dr. Frank Stableford (1870-1959) and used in competition for the first time in 1932, the objective of the Stableford scoring system is to accumulate the most points over 18 holes of golf. Each player receives points according to how she scores in relation to par. The scoring system gives more points for being below par and less points for over par scores. Its theory is that players should earn points for good shots rather than counting all strokes on a hole.

For the ladies of CSLGA, we left the details to our Tuesday Chair, Mary Mott, who calculated the winners for us using the USGA online scoring system.

Second flight winners were first place Catherine Clement, second place Gail Cole, third place Evie Miller, fourth place Sandy Snyder. First flight winners were first place Mary Mott, second place Alison Taylor, third place Bonnie Shore and fourth place Katie Farris. Two members split the Chip Ins, Cathy Clement and Linda Miles. Birdie ladies were Martha Zimmer, Kathy Stewart and Gail Cope.

Recapping the results of this event, Healy said "I love our group of ladies - you make this league fun and easy!"

CSLGA plays every Tuesday at Chatuge Shores

Golf Course 260 Golf Course Rd, Hayesville, NC 28904. Tee time is 9 AM. The league has members from throughout the tri-county area and includes golfers of all skill levels. If you are not a member, but are interested in joining, email Vicky Healy at vhealy55@gmail.com. The league website at www.chatugeshoreslga.com. TJun16.F4/SH
