“I thought our offense looked fantastic. I was very excited to see how much we threw the ball as well as ran. Over the past few years, we’ve always been an option offense, so I felt like we mixed that up a lot more.”

In other news, School Nutrition Manager Becky Lusk requested the disposition of some kitchen equipment – a 13-year-old milk cooler with a broken compressor and a fax-printer-copy machine that’s broken – that would cost more to fix than it’s worth.

The board approved the disposition of those items, which are recyclable.

New School Resource Officer Sally Tanner, who was recommended by Towns County Sheriff Chris Clinton, was approved by the board that evening.

Berrong said it was a formality, but he wanted to recommend Tanner for the position and have the board’s approval on record.

Board Member Robert Williams spoke well of Tanner, saying, “She’s good. She’ll do a good job.”

On Berrong’s recommendation, Jenine Womack was approved by the board to fill the Lead Pre-K Teacher vacancy created by the promotion of Robyn Donaldson to Special Education Teacher in the elementary school.
